BIET has established a strict Code of Conduct for faculty and non-teaching staff for the Academic Year 2018-19, aimed at ensuring a disciplined, respectful, and inclusive learning environment. On August 9, 2018, a mandatory session was conducted in the BIET Auditorium (NB Block) to familiarize faculty and non-teaching staff with these essential guidelines.

During this session, speakers and resource persons firmly addressed critical topics, such as academic integrity, ethical behavior, attendance policies, anti-ragging measures, and professional conduct. The necessity of upholding a respectful and harassment-free atmosphere was not only highlighted but deemed essential for the success of our institution. All staff members are expected to fully adhere to these standards.

At the conclusion of the session, every attendee signed an acknowledgment form, pledging their commitment to uphold the institution's ethical and behavioral standards. This initiative garnered enthusiastic feedback, further solidifying the institution's unwavering dedication to fostering a culture of integrity and high conduct standards.
