The National Service Scheme (NSS) Village Camp is a community outreach initiative aimed at fostering social responsibility and service among students. During the camp, NSS volunteers visit rural areas to engage in various activities such as cleanliness drives, health awareness programs, literacy campaigns, and environmental conservation efforts. The camp provides an opportunity for students to interact with villagers, understand their challenges, and contribute meaningfully to their development. Through this initiative, NSS promotes teamwork, leadership, and a spirit of selfless service, encouraging youth to play an active role in nation-building.

Women's empowerment is deeply linked to their health and hygiene. Access to proper healthcare, menstrual hygiene, and sanitation facilities enhances their well-being, confidence, and participation in society. Awareness programs play a crucial role in educating women about personal hygiene, nutrition, maternal health, and disease prevention. Ensuring access to clean water, sanitary products, and healthcare services reduces health risks and promotes gender equality. By fostering awareness and providing necessary resources, we can empower women to lead healthier lives, contribute to their communities, and break societal barriers
